Between

and

The Commonwealth of Australia

In relation to Partial Eligible Equipment for the purpose of the Diagnostic Imaging Services Table made under the *Health Insurance Act 1973

This deed

is made between the following parties:

[REDACTED]

of

[REDACTED]

(the Provider);

2. The Commonwealth of Australia
(the Commonwealth) as represented by the Department of Health
(the Department)
ABN 83 605 426 759

Recitals

- A. The Diagnostic Imaging Services Table is made under the Health Insurance Act 1973 and sets out those diagnostic imaging services which are eligible for Medicare benefits. The Diagnostic Imaging Services Table may be amended or remade from time to time.
- B. On 1 November 2012, the Diagnostic Imaging Services Table will be amended to expand, among other things, Medicare eligibility in relation to Magnetic Resonance Imaging services to compliant existing or planned Magnetic Resonance Imaging equipment located in metropolitan areas for services specified in the Diagnostic Imaging Services Table by an eligible provider. In order for a Magnetic Resonance Imaging equipment to be partial eligible equipment, the equipment: : (i) must be located in a comprehensive practice in a metropolitan location; and (ii) must be made available to the comprehensive practice by a person who is subject to a deed with the Commonwealth that identifies the equipment as partial eligible equipment.
- C. The purpose of this Deed is to identify partial eligible equipment for the purpose of the Diagnostic Imaging Services Table.
- D. The Provider is the owner or lessee of such equipment and wishes to enter into this Deed with the Commonwealth. The purpose of this Deed is to identify the owner or lessee of the equipment that will be partial eligible equipment on and from 1 November 2012 and to provide the parties with a record of the location and specifications of the equipment.
