Communicable Diseases Network Australia Website

Information on the Communicable Diseases Network Australia (CDNA) is now available on the Communicable Diseases Australia Website.

The Communicable Disease Network Australia was established in 1989 as the Communicable Diseases Control Network, as a joint initiative of the National Health and Medical Research Council and Australian Health Ministers’ Advisory Council. Its aim was to oversee, the co-ordination of national communicable disease surveillance, the response to communicable disease outbreaks of national importance; and field training of communicable disease epidemiologists.
