My Dear Minister,

Following from our discussion this morning, it is with profound regret that I must tender my resignation as your Chief of Staff.

[REDACTED]

With your permission, it is my intention to finish at close of business on Monday of next week, which will provide the opportunity for an orderly handover of current matters.

I am confident that [REDACTED] will do an admirable role as Acting Chief of Staff until you find a replacement, and I have arranged that [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] will provide further assistance and supervision during the period of transition.

[REDACTED] will put out a media statement on my behalf this afternoon.

It has been an honour to work with you. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

Sincerely,

Alastair Furnival
Chief of Staff

Assistant Minister for Health | [REDACTED]
