The Centre for Remote Health in Alice Springs supports placements to over 50 small Indigenous communities in central Australia which do not appear on this map.