The Australian Government upholds:

- the United Nations Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities
- the Disability Discrimination Act (Cth) 1992.

These help to:

- protect the rights and dignity of people with disability
- ensure people with disability receive the same level of healthcare as other persons. Healthcare workers should promote the dignity and autonomy of people with disability, including their freedom to make their own choices. Health care services should be free from bias and / or discrimination.
