

FIRST NATIONS HEALTH FUNDING TRANSITION ADVISORY GROUP

Communique

28 May 2024

The First Nations Health Funding Transition Advisory Group met virtually on 9 May 2024. The meeting was chaired by Dr Dawn Casey, Acting CEO, National Aboriginal Community Controlled Health Organisation.

Analysis and discussion of opportunities

Further analysis of programs has occurred since the Advisory Group's last meeting on 4 April 2024. Members considered the specifics of eight programs that have previously been identified as a result of desktop analysis. Members considered the alignment of programs with the strategic direction of the community controlled sector and its readiness and willingness to take on additional activities.

Members discussed each program against the prioritisation framework and provided recommendations to shape future program considerations.

Further meetings are scheduled for May and June 2024 to finalise discussions and confirm recommendations for transition.

A roadmap for transition will be developed following the completion of these discussions.

Engagement and Further Information
