

Australian Government
Department of Health and Aged Care

“Once health care professionals have gone through the training, they have more confidence, particularly around things like communication.”

Melissa Bruno, Nurse Consultant and Palliative Care Link Nurse Coordinator

Free palliative care education and training

For course information and resources to build your skills, visit:

health.gov.au/palliative-care-education