

Australian Government
Department of Health and Aged Care

Free palliative care education and training

Everyone who works in aged care has an important role to play in the delivery of high-quality palliative care.

For course information and resources to build your skills, visit:

health.gov.au/palliative-care-education