

Australian Government

Australian Government response to the Senate Finance and Public Administration Reference Committee report:

Implementation of the National Health Reform Agreement.

SEPTEMBER 2024

Response to the recommendations

Australian Government response

The Government notes this recommendation. However, given the passage of time since this report was tabled, in March 2013, a substantive Government response is no longer appropriate.