

You have choices when it comes to cervical screening.

Women and people with a cervix aged 25–74 should have a test every 5 years. The doctor can do your test, or you can do it yourself.

It's your Cervical Screening Test. Own It.

Talk to your doctor or visit www.ownit.org.au