

Conformance status tracker Electronic National Residential Medication Charts (eNRMC)

Electronic prescribing capability for residential aged care

The Department of Health, Disability and Ageing and the Australian Digital Health Agency (Agency) are working with eNRMC software vendors to ensure conformant eNRMC systems with electronic prescribing capability are available by 1 October 2025.

The eNRMC Transitional Arrangement is ending soon. This fact sheet outlines the current status of eNRMC products and their conformance with legislative and technical requirements for electronic prescribing under the Pharmaceutical Benefits Scheme (PBS and Repatriation PBS (RPBS)).

NOTE: This document will be updated regularly as new eNRMC products achieve conformance with the legislative and technical requirements of electronic prescribing.

Until 01 March 2026, three types of eNRMC systems may be in use across Australia. This tracker is designed to help:

- Pharmacists identify which systems support legal dispensing without a separate prescription.
- Prescribers understand which systems allow direct electronic prescribing from the chart.
- Residential Aged Care Homes (RACHs) plan for system upgrades and compliance.
