What to do next

You must agree to participate in the Bonded Medical Program (Program) on or before 30 June 2026. Participants of the Program are bound by Part VD of the Health Insurance Act 1973 and must abide by the Health Insurance \(Bonded Medical Program\) Rule 2020. You must ensure you understand your obligations as outlined in these documents before you agree to participate in the Program.

If you do not agree to participate in the Program, you forfeit your bonded Commonwealth Supported Place (CSP) at Hufflepuff.

You can confirm your agreement to participate in the Program in the 'Sign up' section below. The information in the 'Sign up' section can also be downloaded.

Further Information

To learn more about Program requirements before you agree to participate, please refer to the Learn section or alternatively view the BRoSS Participant Guide on our website.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Department of Health, Disability and Ageing on 1800 987 104 (available Monday-Friday, 8:30am-5:00pm AEST) or visit our website.

Review all the information on the left-hand side of the page by opening the accordions.

- University: Hufflepuff
- Campus: Hufflepuff Campus 3
- Course name: Bachelor of Charms
- Entry: Undergraduate
- Length of course: 6 years
- Student ID: 9087

Below the navigation menu, the 'Update your details' option is highlighted with a green box. The main content area also includes a 'What to do next' section with a deadline of 30 June 2026 and 99 days left to accept. A 'Proceed with sign-up?' button is located at the bottom of the main content area.

Under the 'Update your details' accordion, review the information under 'Personal contact details' and update as required by clicking the 'Edit' button.

To ensure you receive important Program notifications and emails, please ensure you add a non-university email address in the alternate email field.

The screenshot shows the 'Personal contact details' form. The form is titled 'Personal contact details' and includes the following fields:

- Given names: [Redacted]
- Family name: [Redacted]
- Date of birth: [Redacted]
- Contact email: [Redacted]
- Phone: [Redacted]
- Alternate email: [Redacted]
- Alternate phone: [Redacted]

Ensure all mandatory fields (marked orange in the Edit pages) are correct and click 'Save'.

The screenshot shows the BRoSS portal interface. On the left, there is a green header for 'Important information' and a 'Welcome' section with details for Hufflepuff University, including campus, course name, entry level, and length. Below this is a vertical menu with options: Learn, Plan, Update your details, and Sign up. On the right, there is an orange header for 'Important' with two boxes: 'Acceptance due date' (30 June 2026) and 'Time left to accept' (99 days). Below this is a 'What to do next' section with instructions and a 'Proceed with sign-up?' button highlighted with a green border.

Or, open the 'Sign up' accordion to view your 'Agreement to Participate'.

This screenshot is identical to the one above, but the 'Sign up' button in the left-hand menu is highlighted with a green border, indicating the next step in the process.

The Bonded Medical Program

In this Section In this section you can agree to participate in the Bonded Medical Program (Program). We strongly encourage you to seek legal advice before agreeing to participate to ensure you understand your obligations.

The Program is a statutory scheme which provides a Commonwealth Supported Place (CSP) in a medical course at an Australian university as a benefit to students. In exchange, participants commit to completing work in regional, rural or remote areas or areas of workforce shortage for 156 weeks. This is called a Return of Service Obligation (RoSO).

If you choose not to participate, please inform your university that you will not become a Program participant.

Agreement to participate

You become a Program participant when you agree to participate in the Program.

Participants of the Bonded Medical Program are bound by Part VD of the Health Insurance Act 1973 \(Act\) and must abide by the Health Insurance \(Bonded Medical Program\) Rule 2020 \(Rule\). You must ensure you understand your obligations as outlined in these documents before you agree to participate in the Program.

You will remain a Program participant until an event mentioned in subsection 124ZE(4) of The Act applies to you.

Further information

You can find additional information about BRoSS in the Learn sections on this page, and in the BRoSS Participant Guide.

If you have any further questions, you can contact the Department of Health, Disability and Ageing on 1800 987 104 (available Monday-Friday, 8:30am 5:00pm AEST) or visit our website.

Check this box to confirm you accept the conditions outlined in Part VD of the Health Insurance Act 1973 and the Health Insurance \(Bonded Medical Program\) Rule 2020 and that you agree to participate in the Bonded Medical Program.

Important information

Welcome

Welcome to the Bonded Medical Program (the Program), a key long-term initiative of the Australian Government's Stronger Rural Health Strategy. In the future you will provide much needed medical services to Australians living in regional, rural and remote areas.

Participants of the Program are bound by Part VD of the Health Insurance Act 1973 (the Act) and must abide by the Health Insurance \(Bonded Medical Program\) Rule 2020 (the Rule).

You must register a Return of Service Obligation (RoSO) Plan before you finish your medical course. This plan may be changed any time before you commence the activity.

Learn and Plan

For more information use the Learn and Plan sections to find out more about the Bonded Medical Program, what it offers you and how the Program's obligations can work best for you and your medical career.

Your Details

You can view and edit your personal details at any time. Your contact details will be used by the Department of Health, Disability and Ageing while you are in the Program. It is a legal requirement of the Program that these details are kept up to date.

Your Program Timeline

This shows which phase you are in. There are reporting obligations for each phase. These are called Program events and RoSO activities.
