

Every child learns and grows in their own way

Thriving Kids is for families and their children aged 8 and under who need extra support with their development.

To learn more about development delay or autism, scan the QR code or visit health.gov.au/thrivingkids

