Hi s47E( )

Just closing the loop on this one. We have registered a "spend to save' initiative to retrofit WoW Wipes in all tenancies. So we'll wait to see if it is approved as a priority. s47G . s47E is running with this project and will be looking after the arrangements for new NWOW builds going forward. We're not at the point when we can definitively commit to what we're doing for the already completed floors but I'm comfortable that we can put them in all the new floors.

Hi s47E( )

Just preparing some comms for forthcoming moves onto NWOW floors. Will the antibacterial wipe dispensers (that have been rolled out on Level 3) only be put on new NWOW floors, or will they also be rolled out across existing NWOW floors in Yaradhang (to replace the cleaning trolleys)? If the latter, when will that happen?

Thanks,

Hi s47E ( )

As discussed, we need to explore what rolling out WOW Wipes to all floors and all sites looks like.

1. What is the up front cost? (by site)
2. How much do the refills cost (compared to the packet wipes)?
3. Who refills them? (and is that option available in our other sites?)

As discussed, a good one for s47E( ) to sink her teeth into. We should answer the first Q as soon as possible s47E(c) 47E need to liaise with colleagues to determine how many each site will need). There could be somewhere in the order of s47E(d) available for spend to save. Categories: s47 E( ) to Action

Good afternoon,

The below WOW wipe bins have been purchased for a couple of the Yaradhang Building NWOW floors.

I have been assigned the task of determining how many of these bins would be required at each site, if we were to implement them on a national scale (this includes non NWOW floors).

Could you please let me know the quantity required for each site at your earliest convenience.

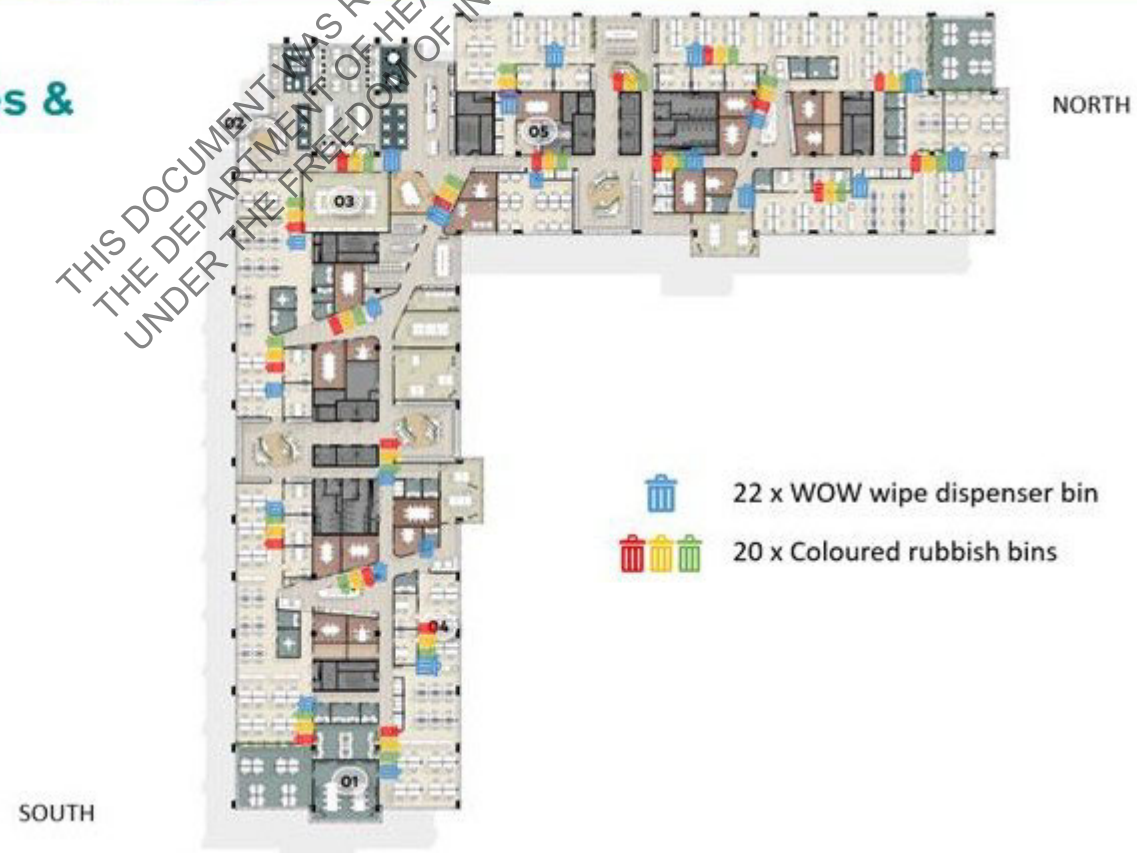

I have included a plan of Level 3 in the Yaradhang Building, showing the locations of where we have placed these bins to give you a better understanding of their placement throughout the floor.

* Did not receive a response in relation to numbers for these sites.

FYI

Purchasing directly from the supplier, WOWwipes, rather than through the PSP arrangement, could result in potential savings of approximately s47G for the department.

Additionally, WOWwipes offers a government price for WOW wipes in quantities of 4 x 1,200 rolls at s47G These products are also TGA approved, please see attached.

WOWwipes noted that there would be around 5-7 week wait from receipt of order, with freight costs being passed on for NT, TAS, SA and WA.

I understand that these have only been implemented for Level 1 and Level 3 in the CO. They were purchased through the cleaning company under the PSP arrangement and are regularly refilled by the cleaning company and charged via the monthly POE invoice.

Happy to discuss further to finalise the numbers and begin coordinating the purchase of the WOW wipe bins as part of the 'spend to save' project.

Thank you.

Hi s47E ( )

I spoke with my business partner s47F F looks after the manufacturing of our floor dispenser/bins.

We can do the following pricing.

SSSD – Stainless Steel Floor Dispenser / s47G

MBSD – Powder Coated Floor Dispenser / s47G

GMSD – Gun Metal Grey Floor Dispenser / s47G

WOW Wipes – Maxx-Pack 4 x 1200 rolls s47G

All orders would be s47G

s47G

These we can quote once we know quantities to each area. It wouldn't be a huge fee; we would simply pass on the freight costs we incur from the 3rd party carriers.

WOW Wipes are TGA approved, and kill 99.99-99.999% of germs within 2 minutes, including viruses (Influenza, Coronavirus), bacteria, fungi. There are very few BULK wipes suppliers that have TGA approval.

The Australian Government certificate for our listing on the Australian Register of Therapeutic Goods is attached.

Hi s47E (c)

s 4 has passed on your details regarding the below enquiry.

We have a national footprint with warehouses and carrier reach to all States and Territories. We have completed many national rollouts over the years 😊

Just a couple of quick questions before I submit a quote for your consideration .

s47G we do have the premium stainless steel colour and also a new gun metal grey.

Do you specially require the stainless steel, or would you consider the matte black or gunmetal grey?

s47G

s47G

If you went with the stainless steel or gunmetal, we would make a special order if an order was confirmed, these would be around s47G

We would offer a Government Price on the 4 x 1200 rolls, s47G

All noted below.

I do have a further update on time frames for the SSSD's if you were to go ahead with the full roll out. This excludes the 16 for QLD, we have these in stock, and sufficient stock on hand to ensure this order will be filled in June no problem.

s47G This is the SSSD (Stainless Steel Floor Dispenser/Bin) only, we have plenty of WOW Wipes in stock.

Recapping, we keep a s47G . Although our personal preference is the SSSD, we feel this looks the most premium of the range.

Hi s47E ( )

Confirmation of order prior to June 2nd, 2025, will allow us time to have this QLD order delivered by 11/12 June 2025

16 x SSSD – Stainless Steel Floor Dispenser / s47G

64 x 1200 rolls WOW Wipes – Maxx-Pack 4 x 1200 rolls s47G

s47G

WOW Wipes are not included as far as I know on any Government Panels, however we supply many state, federal and territory governments, and councils directly.

We don't actively respond to tenders in this space due to our product being quite niche. If we were to supply full washroom solutions, we would be more active in responding to tenders.

Please note I have included 64 x rolls as the cartons are in 4 x 1200 rolls.

I note your pricing below is lower than I quoted - Can you please confirm your breakdown?
s47G

The stainless-steel floor dispenser bins are a s47G . Hence the slightly higher price for the SSSD. These RRP for $299 + GST https://www.wowwipes.com.au/shop/wipes-dispensers/stainless-steel-floor-dispensers/

If Health were looking to roll out the remaining 253 + units at a later stage across AU, s47G

Hi s47E( )

I spoke with my business partner Rob, he looks after the manufacturing of our floor dispenser/bins.

We can do the following pricing.

SSSD – Stainless Steel Floor Dispenser / s47G

MBSD – Powder Coated Floor Dispenser / s47G

GMSD – Gun Metal Grey Floor Dispenser / s47G

WOW Wipes – Maxx-Pack 4 x 1200 rolls - s47G

All orders would be s47G

s47G

These we can quote once we know quantities to each area. It wouldn't be a huge fee; we would simply pass on the freight costs we incur from the 3rd party carriers.

WOW Wipes are TGA approved, and kill 99.99-99.999% of germs within 2 minutes, including viruses (Influenza, Coronavirus), bacteria, fungi. There are very few BULK wipes suppliers that have TGA approval.

The Australian Government certificate for our listing on the Australian Register of Therapeutic Goods is attached.

Regards
s47F

Hi s47E (c)

s4 has passed on your details regarding the below enquiry.

We have a national footprint with warehouses and carrier reach to all States and Territories. We have completed many national rollouts over the years 😊

Just a couple of quick questions before I submit a quote for your consideration .

Our Matte Black Floor Dispenser/Bin is our most popular, we do have the premium stainless steel colour and also a new gun metal grey.

Do you specially require the stainless steel, or would you consider the matte black or gunmetal grey?

We would offer a Government Price on the 4 x 1200 rolls, s47G

Subject: WOW Wipe Bin - Quote Request [SEC=OFFICIAL]

Good morning,

Thank you for your time on the phone the other day regarding the WOW wipe bins that the Department of Health and Aged Care is considering to purchase.

Could you please provide a quote for a total of 269 silver WOW wipe bins.

We will also require the 1,200 refills for these bins. You mentioned that a s47G if we purchase them as a bundle—could you please confirm if this is still the case.

Additionally, could you let me know if the WOW wipe bins can be delivered to each of the States and Territories.

I would appreciate it if you could send the quote by mid next week.

Thank you.

Regards
