Subject: Report not yet available - applicant to advise if they wish a decision or will withdraw

Dear XX

I refer to your Freedom of Information request to the Department of Health (the department) seeking access to 'Request'

This report has not yet been produced.

When the report has been prepared, it will be published online at XX (if available)

On this basis, please confirm if you would like the Department to make a formal FOI decision that this report has not been produced, or alternatively confirm if you would like to withdraw your request. If the department does not hear from you by COB X indicating your preferred way forward, we will consider your request withdrawn.

Regards
