Subject: Response to applicant preliminary search - preliminary search - no docs held - seeking advice

Dear xx

Thank you for your request to the Department of Health (department) of XX seeking access under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (FOI Act) to:

'Request.'

Preliminary searches undertaken indicate that the department does not appear to hold any documents within the scope of your request.

Next steps

On that basis, please confirm if you would like the department's FOI unit to make a formal FOI decision that we hold no documents, or alternatively please confirm if you would like to withdraw your request.

If the FOI unit does not hear from you by COB XX indicating your preferred option, we will consider your request withdrawn.

Please do not hesitate to contact the FOI unit on (02) 6289 1666 or via email at foi@health.gov.au if you would like to discuss further.

Kind regards
