

Workplace Strategy: what are our options?

Strategy 1: Traditional enclosed office (e.g. assigned seating and offices, modern furnishing, upgraded collaboration tools and spaces)

- Large amount of personal and shared enclosed offices
- limited collaborative settings – mostly formal
- limited focus space

Strategy 2: Open Plan/Process office

(e.g. assigned seating and offices, modern furnishing, upgraded collaboration tools and spaces)

- limited personal and shared offices
- limited collaborative settings – mostly formal
- limited focus space

Strategy 3: Flex office, Hotdesking, Low Choice

(modern upgrades, hot desks and informal collaboration spaces)

- some variety in settings
- increased informal collaboration
- limited focus space
- little to no offices

Strategy 4: Highly flexible, High Choice

(freedom of choice to work anywhere, anytime, anyhow)

- variety of work settings
- focus space available for all
- formal and informal collaborative settings
- no personally owned space
