* Deferred allocations are allocations that cannot be made until the successful applicant is granted approved provider status to deliver residential care under the Aged Care Act 1997. Details of deferred allocations are not made public until after this approval is granted.

The formal allocation of places to the provider may impose a condition of allocation to provide priority of access to the Special Needs Groups and Key Issues groups listed. Providers can, and will, also deliver care to these groups in the absence of any condition of allocation.

Special Needs Group Key:

- ATSI: People from Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities
- CALD: People from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds
- R-R: People who live in rural and remote areas
- FSD: People who are financially or socially disadvantaged
- VETS: Veterans
- HOM: People who are homeless or at risk of becoming homeless
- LGBTI: Lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and intersex people
