Good morning 2022 Graduates and Supervisors,

We hope you are settling in and having a play around in Webex so you are confident navigating it for our virtual induction which will kick off at 11am (Canberra time) tomorrow.

A member of the Entry Level Programs (ELP) Team will be onsite until COB Thursday if you have any questions or concerns you can reach out via:

- s22

Entrylevelprograms@health.gov.au

- Dropping up to Level 3 North Sirius Building

You will shortly receive all invitations to our virtual induction series. Please accept them all so your calendar is updated. The union event (CPSU) on Thursday is optional. All other events are essential to your induction.

Supervisors you will also receive the invites for your information only so you know when your graduate will be online with our team.

We hope you have a great first day and we look forward to connecting with you all over the week.

Kind regards,

s22
